Celebrating 100 Years of Columbus Speech & Hearing

On June 26th, we celebrated a significant milestone at Columbus Speech & Hearing (CSH). We celebrated our 100th anniversary and hosted a special luncheon to mark the occasion. Presented by Grange Insurance and emceed by NBC4's Jerod Smalley, the event was a true celebration of our legacy. CSH welcomed over 200 friends, colleagues, donors, and partners at the Renaissance Downtown to honor our impact over the past century.

Hearing Protection in the Summer!

Many outdoor activities in the summer can be extremely loud and possibly damaging to your ears. For example, exposure to the sounds of lawn equipment, power tools, fireworks, and concerts can all lead to irreversible hearing loss.

Halloween Hop Committee!

We're looking for people to join the CSH Halloween Hop Committee. The Halloween Hop Committee is a fantastic opportunity to work with CSH and help plan a fun event for our clients and the community. Committee members meet virtually once a month.

CSH On Good Day Marketplace!

Did you happen to miss CSH on Good Day Marketplace?

No need to fret. You can still watch CEO James Dye discuss our 100th Anniversary with Cameron Fontana and the continued significance of our work even after a century.

Upcoming Events:

Save the Date! Columbus Speech & Hearing's Halloween Hop is back this fall. Join us on October 28th as we invite the community for a free, sensory-friendly Halloween experience.

If you are interested in sponsoring or becoming involved with this fun, unique event, contact Laura Owens, Special Events Coordinator lowens@columbusspeech.org.
